

Dave Jones

*Promotions Manager,
BendBroadband
COTV*

I'm proud to claim that I'm a native Oregonian and a central Oregon resident for the past 27 years (!).

My professional path began as a TV news reporter/cameraperson/writer/anchor at KLEW-TV in Lewiston, Idaho. In 1982 I came to Bend where I served as news director at the NBC affiliate for several years. After operating my own production company for nine years, I wised up and joined the cable world, first as VP of Ad Sales and Production, and now as Promotions Manager.

My duties include operating COTV-11 and working with the amazing people that bring you the impressive list of local TV programs (some of them award-winning) that you cannot see anywhere else. Our crew is talented, creative, and technically sound and courageous. And fun.

We enjoy creating local TV programs like, Good Morning Central Oregon, Talk of the Town, High School Sports, Cooking Central Oregon Style and more.

Part of my job puts me in contact with the community, emceeing events, moderating City Club and candidate forums, and doing stage announcements at concerts (where I've been known to throw cool things into the crowds.)

I'm a lucky guy. I love my job and the people I work with.
