

Greg Fair
COTV Supervisor & Director

*“The details of my life are quite inconsequential”
 --Dr. Evil*

My name is Greg Fair, and this is my story, in about 200 words or less:

I was born in Mesa, AZ but moved around all over the country. Places such as, San Diego, Toledo Ohio, Memphis, Seattle & Portland, among others.

I discovered theatre in high school and was hooked immediately. I was a Theatre major for a while in college but drifted more toward the production aspects of film & Television. Many moons later I received my degree in Television Production, which meant I was now ready to start at the bottom, freelancing for a production company in Portland and earning as much as your average bag of recyclables per week...but I loved it.

The years following I worked for stations in Bend & Portland, directing the news and working in promotions. (Wow, isn't my life interesting! My un-authorized autobiography comes out in November. It's titled, "Nobody Cares").

Anyway, I love working for COTV as its supervisor, I have the best team and we have a great time making COTV-11 into a one-of-a-kind local TV Station.
